I bring to your notice the following few lines for your perusal.

1. The total no of students in the College increased upto 1900.
2. The no. of sections are also increased as per APSCE sanctioned strength for the last academic year.
3. The class rooms also increased as the sections are increased.
4. The No. of desks damaged are 150 no.
5. For Language classes in some of the rooms students are adjusting with 4 members in each desk.
6. The old T&P also cleared, and the damged desks sent to DPW store vide Proc. Roc.No. SG1/392/SGSAC/TTD/Tpt/1996, 08.11.2016.
7. As additional sections are sanctioned by APSCE for this academic and management also approved and according by we have extra candidates for this academic year, Hence the students strength these academic year will rose to 2500.
8. For the next academic year the strength will increase up to 2500 nos.

Hence, 400 additional desks may be issued for the next academic year as the college works in two sessions i.e. morning session B.Sc. and afternoon session (BA / B.Com) to maintain Physical distance among the students as per guidelines of Covid-19. So, in these circumstances explained above 400 nos of extra desks may be allotted from the nest academic year (i.e. 2021—2022).
