OBJECTIVES OF FIELD VISIT (DST-PURSE CENTRE):

The Research objectives of the DST-PURSE Programme are being carried out in different areas of Physical and Biological Sciences in respective departments.

Major Research areas:

- Physical Sciences-Material research for the development of micro and nano devices.
- Biological Sciences – Biotic and Abiotic molecules and their health effects and therapeutic applications.
- Engineering Sciences-Metal, soil, structure investigations; scheduling, modelling, simulation of welding and advanced computing related to industry.

Outcomes of field visit:

- Expose students to new experiences and can increase interest and engagement in science regardless of prior interest in a topic
- Result in effective gains such as more positive feelings toward a topic
- Are experiences that can be recalled and useful long after a visit
- A shared social experience that provides the opportunity for students to encounter and explore novel things in an authentic setting.

PREFACE

I believe that the present book "Aquaculture Practical book" has been prepared carefully to meet the requirements of III B.Sc Zoology students as per the changed syllabus.

This book is being organised into five Chapters. 1st Chapter deals with the General characters of fishes, ^Procedure of Identification of fish, prawn and Identification of 15 Fishes and 6 Prawns/shrimp. 2nd Chapter covers dissection in fish and prawn. 3rd Chapter incorporates the procedure of isolation of pituitary gland in fish and mounting of scales. 4th Chapter explains the analysis of water relating 3 physical factors and chemical factors. 5th Chapter promulgates the Phytoplankton covering 6 examples and Zooplankton covering 9 examples.

I sincerely wish to acknowledge my thanks to my Correspondent Dr. P. Chiranjeevini Kumari, M. Phil.D., College Management and Principal for necessary permission and constant encouragement. I also thank M/s. Technical Publishers, Guntur for their co-operation.

I appreciate comments and suggestions from learned staff for the improvement of next edition.
